DREAM MANAGEMENT

DREAM Management is a series of principles, which keep teaching and learning at the heart of education. It reflects the beliefs we attempt to live and work by in our day-to-day management life. All too often in educational management we see quality teaching struggle against administrative and paperwork constraint.*

DREAM Management, principles apply to managers with following five principles for the role of teachers within a DREAM Management framework:*

Discuss and communicate openly.*

Reflect on your classroom practice and job.*

Enjoy alongside your colleagues.*

Activate your ideas through Action Learning and Research.*

Move with the times and towards your management by being proactive.*

This simple acronym provides us with a powerful set of principles. DREAM is also acronyms as:

Develop, Respect, Enhance, Appraise and Motivate.

CHANGE FACTOR:

Many of us simply work and play counting upon serendipitous occurrences to advance our careers and personal lives. The whole idea of setting goals seems daunting to some and restrictive to others. And, yet goals can help us become more efficient and give us a feeling of competence. Goals can motivate us to move forward and show us where forward is.
